Your guide will walk you through narrow streets of the Stone Town which is the old part of Zanzibar Town where most of the houses date back more than one hundred and fifty years. In the morning after breakfast you'll go on a spice tour and visit the Jozan Forest. You will start seeing many varieties of spice on the plantation farm then you be taken to Jozan Forest for a walk where we'll look out for birds and animals like the rare red colobus monkey. The Zanzibar red colobus monkey has been isolated from its mainland counterparts for at least ten to fifteen thousand years, thus producing a distinct sub-species with different calls, eating habits and coat patterns and Jozani Forest is the last stronghold for this particular type of colobus.

Lunch will be served at Kizimkazi.
